

Radio City revamps Sunday programming, adds new shows

Radio City 91.1 FM has upped its fun quotient and revamped the entire Sunday programming. With an array of exciting new shows and segments coupled with melodious music, Radio City 91.1 FM has further fortified the Sunday line-up. Listeners can now tune in to exciting shows like 'Bharat ki Amar Kahaaniyan', 'Radio City Comedy show', 'Radio City Concert', 'Radio City par Kissa Crime ka' and 'Yeh hai Meri Kahaani'.

Talking about the new shows, Kartik Kalla, National Programming Head, Radio City 91.1 FM said, "People these days want to make the most out of their weekends and our Special Weekend Programming will aim to deliver just that. Radio City Weekends will be a spectrum of entertainment comprising of different bands like History, Drama, Thrill, Suspense, Comedy, Fresh Music, Celebrity autobiographies and much more. Radio City has always been the pioneer in innovating programming and with these new shows, we plan to push the envelope furthermore, guaranteeing maximum entertainment even on the weekends now."

Radio City 91.1 FM introduces interesting tales through 'Bharat Ki Amar Kahaniyaan'. Through this show, Radio City attempts to retell stories from the great Indian epics, mythology, history, folklore, and fables. Actor Raza Murad will narrate the legends of great historical personalities who have added value to the cultural heritage of India reviving nostalgic memories of the listeners.

'Radio City Comedy Show' presents a hilarious look on the practices of people in India through talented stand-up comedians.

What follows next is Radio City's very own classic autobiographical take with 'Yeh Hai Meri Kahaani'. The show will feature listener's favourite celebrities who will share their stories and anecdotes about the days before they actually became a star. This show will not only takes the celeb back to their struggling days and remind them of their accomplishments but it also gives listeners an insight on how these extraordinary people are no different from them.

Next in line is the 'Radio City Concert' where listeners can enjoy the unplugged versions of their favourite covers rendered by a whole lot of talented singers who have successfully released cover versions of many Bollywood hit songs. The 3-hour long show is not only a platform for budding artists but also a musical treat for listeners as they get to hear very interesting yet mellifluous versions of their favourite film songs.

'Radio City par Kissa Crime Ka' is a complete fictional audio play which narrates different stories based on commonly occurring crimes across the country. With artists bringing life to the characters with their voice in every story alongside situational background music and sound effects, this show is definitely a teeth-chattering one.

Radio City aims to take the connection forged with their listeners to the next level as it promises to add a fresh new dimension in each of their activities following the ideology of 'City First Aap First'.